You are cordially invited to participate in a Brown Bag Lunch and Learn Presentation with speakers, Kelley Callard and Jill Gies from the U.S. Trustee's Office, along with commentary and insight from Chief Judge Shefferly. For those of you newer to bankruptcy, this program will be an excellent opportunity to learn about the requirements for the Means Test and Schedules I and J and issues surrounding the forms, the Bankruptcy Code and Rules. For those of you more experienced, this will be a chance to review your practices and share what has worked best for you. Whether this information is new to you or is a refresher on the topic, everyone has something to offer and something to gain by attending.

This will be an opportunity to engage in an informal, small group discussion where you can feel free to ask questions and get the answers you need to navigate this process. Also feel free to send questions in advance.

Materials will be distributed at the session.
You are encouraged to bring a lunch.

This event is hosted by the Office of the Chapter 13 Trustee Carl L. Bekofske. Judge Opperman and Judge Applebaum will be in attendance. We look forward to seeing you there.
